Dear QFMC,

The following is a message regarding office hours and staffing, community shepherding groups, and QFMC connection/communication methods.

Office Hours & Staffing:

In order to respond to the current challenges COVID-19 has presented, QFMC will be making the following changes to our office hours and staffing:

- Regular office hours are temporarily suspended, however QFMC will remain open and responsive!
- Staff will be working both remotely and in the office on varied schedules.
- If you call the office during normal hours, someone will answer! Phones will be monitored and answered during regular office hours of Mon-Thurs 9am-4pm and go to monitored voicemail outside of normal office hours.
- If you wish to stop by the office to speak to someone or drop off tithes/offerings, please call first to make sure someone is there or to allow time for someone to come meet you.

Community Shepherding Groups:

As Pastor Shaun has been referencing, QFMC is building community shepherding groups of 8-12 to make sure our church body doesn't become disconnected or isolated during this season. If you would be willing to be a shepherd of a group, making contact at least weekly over the phone or other means, please call, email, or text to let us know!

Communication & Connection methods:

During this season, QFMC will be utilizing the following communication and connection methods:

Voice: 509-787-4491

Text: 1-509-260-8183

As Pastor Shaun has been encouraging us, please stay:

Connected

In the Word

In Prayer

Generous

Smart & Safe

As a result of mandates surrounding COVID-19, and in an effort to keep our community safe, QFMC is postponing all group events until they are deemed safe and prudent. QFMC will be making every effort to stay connected to you, please make every effort to stay connected to QFMC and to each other.
