Word spread of Aeneas' healing.

When a woman named Tabitha died in the nearby town of Joppa, the Christians sent for Peter.

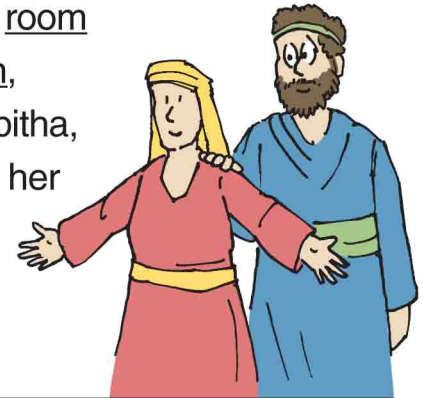

Follow the maze from Lydda to Joppa.

They hoped Peter could perform a miracle and bring Tabitha back to them, because she had been so kind and helpful.

In the town of Joppa lived a disciple named Tabitha (translated Dorcas), who always did good deeds and helped the poor. She became sick and died. Two men went to Lydda and asked Peter to come. Widows were crying and showing him the robes she had sewn for them. Peter sent everyone out of the room where her body lay, knelt down, and prayed. Then he said, "Tabitha, get up." She sat up. Peter took her hand and helped her stand. Then he presented her alive to her friends.
